Warm Up

The Hello Song

Hello! How are you?
Hello! How are you?
I'm fine, fine, fine.
I'm fine, fine, fine.

Do a level-appropriate warm-up. T patiently teaches the Hello Song to S by singing line by line. After each line, T stops and lets S sing. Once the entire song is taught, T and S sing it completely two more times.

How are you?

I'm
fine, thanks!

If S struggles with a task, stop here and skip to the reward system slide.
S cannot answer or repeats after T. (LOU0)

If S can't complete ANY tasks, skip to the next slide. If tasks in this assessment were TOO easy for S, switch to an appropriate entry point. S can/can't introduce their age. (L0U0) S knows letter names and/or sings alphabet song. (L1U1) S knows letter sound. (L1U4) S reads the CVC words with a bit of difficulty. (L1U4)

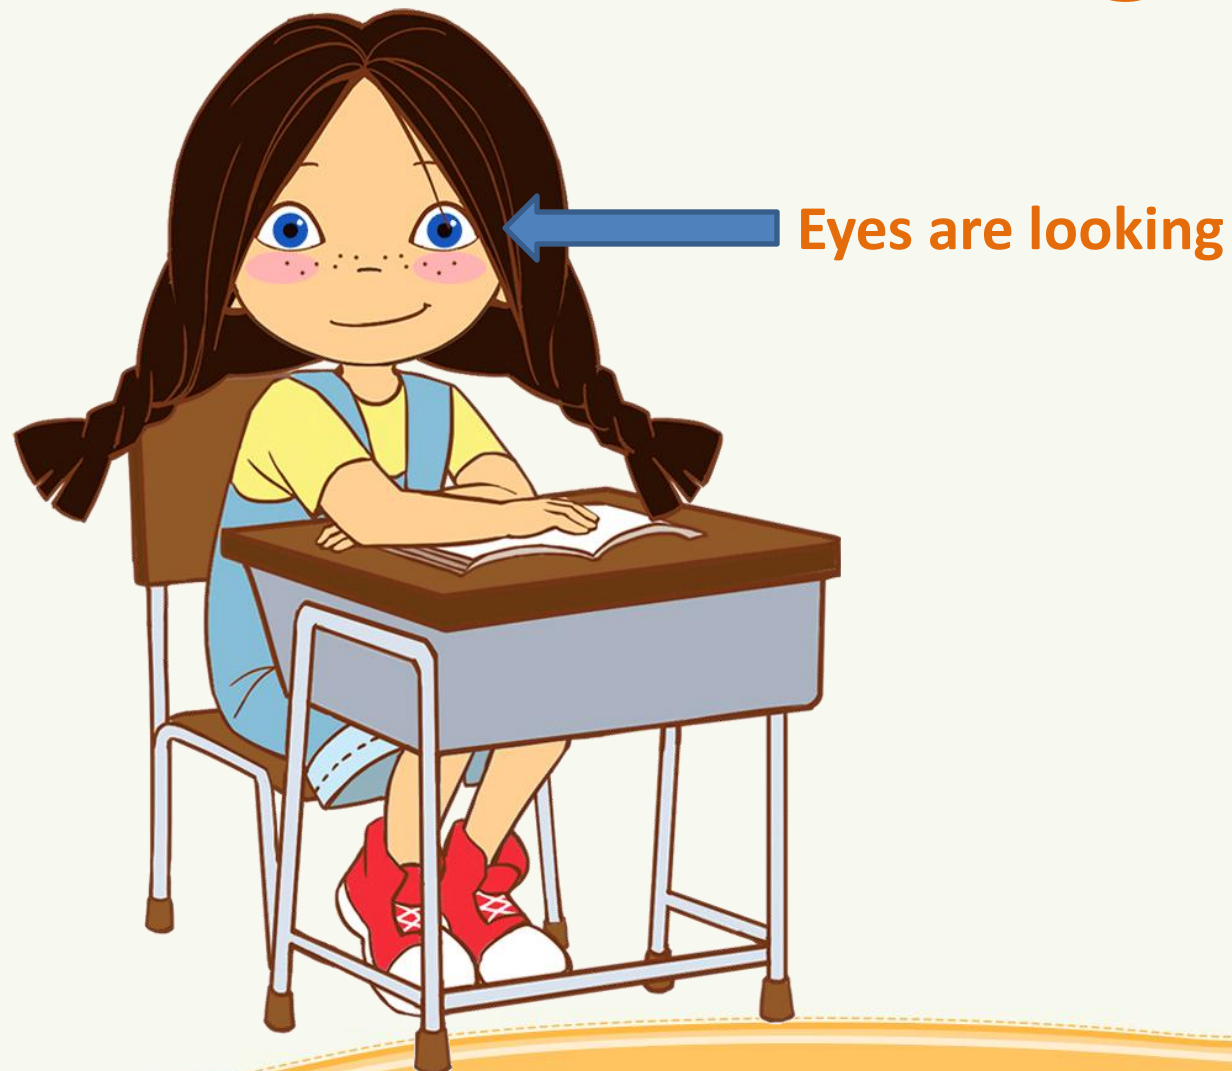

Reward System

---	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

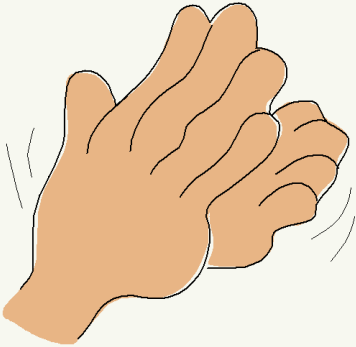

This slide will appear at the end of each section when student (S) should be awarded a point. At the end of each section, reward S for excellent performance by adding bananas. If S doesn't follow the classroom rules, remove banana. At the end of the class, reward S for progress.

Whole Body Listening

T teaches the first VIPKID classroom rule by emphasizing that S's eyes should be looking at the teacher.

Say and Do

Clap your hands.
Touch your head.
Touch your ears.
Touch your nose.
Clap your hands.
Stand up.
Sit down.
High five.

Are you ready?

T teaches S “Are you ready?” “Yes, I’m ready.” T and S practice multiple times.

T explains to S that this is the alphabet and today the focus of the class is letters A, B, and C. T does not go through the whole alphabet but focus on only the letter target for this class.

Hello.

Hello.

T and S begin the conversation by saying hello to each other.

T and S continue the conversation. T: "How are you?" S repeats: "How are you?"

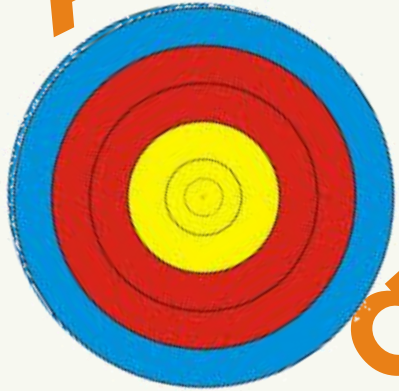

T and S continue the conversation. T: "I'm fine, thanks!" S repeats: "I'm fine, thanks!" After a couple of practices, flip between these 3 slides to practice the dialogue 3x from beginning to end.

Let's Begin

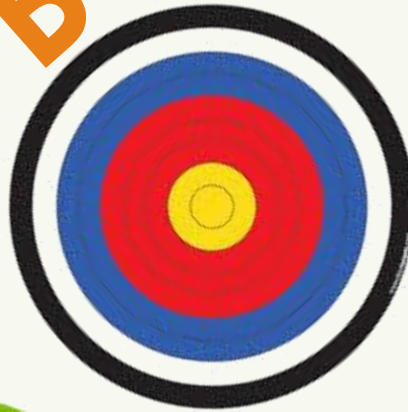

Aa

T teaches the letter name. S repeats. T teaches "Big/small (letter name)."

Activity Time

Circle

T demonstrates how to circle by drawing a circle in the air and getting S to copy the motion. Then, T shows S the mouse and makes a circling motion in the air. Finally, T slowly draws a circle on these lines while saying "Circle".

Circling Fun

T demonstrates circling specific letters and prompts student to repeat: "Circle a. Circle a." T circles "a" while narrating what they are doing. If S doesn't understand, they can just observe.

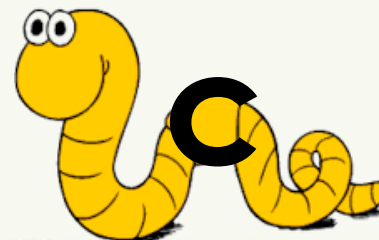

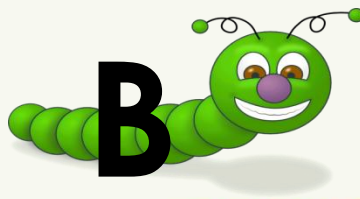

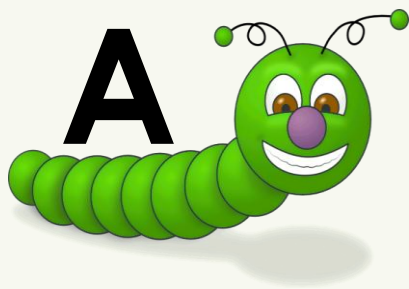

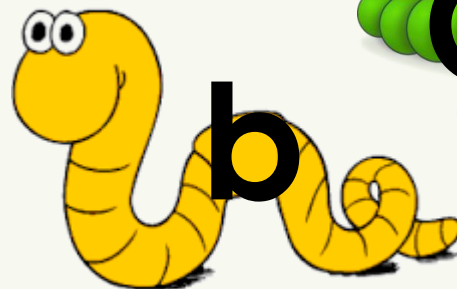

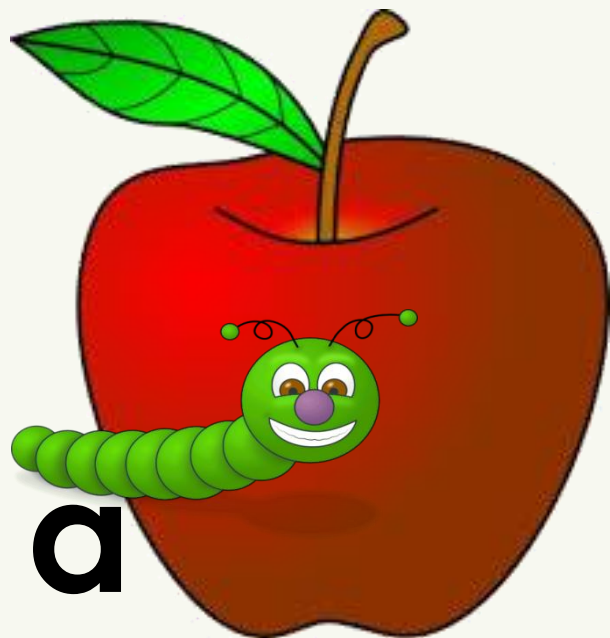

T follows the arrows from 1-7, circling one letter at a time. As T circles, T says the name of the letter twice, and S repeats. Play again with T circling letter while prompting S to say letter name (use gestures like cupping hand over ear).

Where Is My Friend?

TD: Have S match the capital letters with the small letters.

Which One?

Have S sort the worms with capital letters to the big green apple and the worms with small letters to the small red apple.

Woof! Woof!

Have S locate the bone and the football on the stair.

Hello.

Hello.

T and S begin the conversation by saying hello to each other.

T and S continue the conversation. T: "How are you?" S repeats: "How are you?"

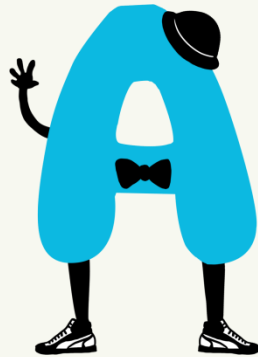

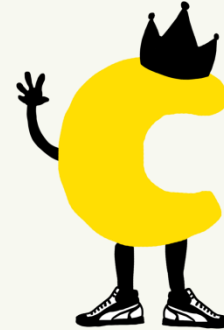

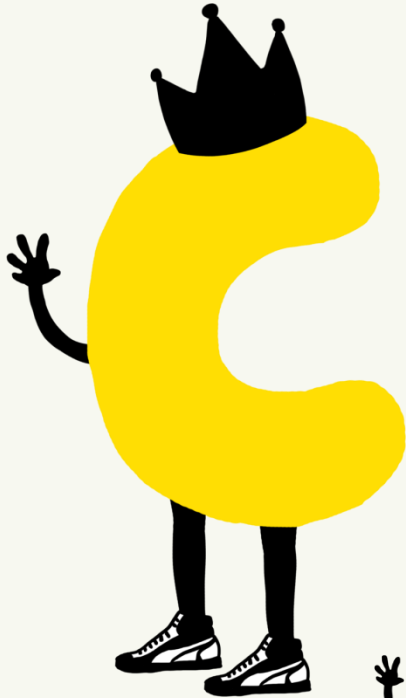

T and S continue the conversation. T: "I'm fine, thanks!" S repeats: "I'm fine, thanks!" After a couple of practices, flip between these 3 slides to practice the dialogue 3x from beginning to end.

Cool Down

Say and Do

Clap your hands.
Touch your head.
Touch your ears.
Touch your nose.
Clap your hands.
Stand up.
Sit down.
High five.

T and S complete the "Say and Do" activity together. T then circles a letter and prompts S to say letter name (gestures).

Goodbye Song

Goodbye!
See you next time.
Goodbye!
See you next time.
Goodbye, bye, bye.
Goodbye, bye, bye.

Goodbye
